General Business:

The President Jim Reid spoke generally on his position and desire to visit as many of the regional Registers as possible, and specifically,

- 1.. At meeting 9 April fees were agreed to and are set out in the book of minutes;
- 2.. The proposal that the seven regional Chairmen be the State's seven Vice-Presidents was a dumb idea and was dumped;
- 3.. The "merit badge" limitation to three per annum is to be changed to a system where every region will be asked to submit their own proposals with no limit;
- 4.. The accumulation of old Jaguar memorabilia once destined for junk will now be capable of being kept by the Club which will facilitate a storage area for same.

Di Cooper announced that an afternoon tea will be offered in memory and a celebration of the life of her late husband, Terry Cooper, set for 1.00-3.00pm next Sunday (6 May) at Ashmore.

John Porter reports: set of JAG101 British racing green number plates available.

Queensland web site shows past Committee members and needs to be updated.

Roger Gibson reports: attended Jaguar gathering during the Easter period in Invercargill in New Zealand's South Island, lots of vehicles, classics, a beautiful day, with Jag cars appearing on every turn.
