Past Events:

David Willmott reports:

On the recent "Chairman's Weekend" reference made to the fine write-up in the magazine by Robin Kup-Ferroth, an amazing trip with lots of good photo opportunities.

On the mid-week meet at "Cafe 2" at Upper Coomera, beaut food, good company and great organisation.

On the "Spring Affair" another fine event with added touches by organiser Lyn & Wes Evers, lovely venue overlooking fountain, a tremendous day and raffles with lots of prizes for everyone.

The "All British Day" attended by several members, Ron Gaudion spoke well, the picnic, some new members, the Jag dealership in attendance as well as other British car makes there.

Ray Howlett comments:

On Weekend Away - "It was a pleasure to take all members on the event".

On the status of the treasury, a donation made to the Steam Downs Museum at Toowoomba, which was approved by the members at that time.

Future Events:

Arthur Kontalis reports:

Confirmed the mid-week lunch now on Wednesday 3rd October to be held at the Sanctuary Cove Golf and Country Club at 12.00 noon. Good venue, never disappointed and good value.

Jayne Mikkelsen reports:

Confirmed the Sunday tour on 14 October is to the "Moomoo Cafe" at Mooball. Will meet at 8.30am (Qld) at Shusters Park for morning tea and departing at 9.30am to meet at the Cafe at 12.00 noon for lunch (NSW daylight saving time).

David Willmott reports:

Has two outings planned for 7th & 11th November, details to be provided at the next meeting.

General Business:

Jim Reid (JDCQ President) spoke:

1. On the recent "All British Day" - 90 cars in attendance, asking for ideas as feedback for future events. Thanks to the representatives of the Registers who attended, with Ron Gaudion's address making a difference.
2. The "Awards of Merit" was a captain's pick but has now evolved and Registers are now requested to propose deserving candidates.
3. The AGM is scheduled for 13th November at 7.00pm at Col Galley's Showroom. Paul Lucas can arrange internet access via "zoom" where up to 200 members can watch, speak and vote.
4. Every year a barbeque is organised in the park, one Sunday every 3 months and raises $5,000.

Ray Howlett spoke:

1. A question arises how much to keep in the account, $10,000 has often been mentioned, this limits subsidies and other things.
2. On the nomination forms for Merit, Volunteer of the Year, and Life Membership.

Ron Gaudion spoke:

Seeking a consensus as to what should be charged for the first outing of 2019 and settled on $25.00 for breakfast.

Door Prize.

David Willmott presented the drawing of the prizes, being a key ring donated by Jane Mickelsen, one wine by Richard & Carolyn Mercer, and two wines by "anonymous"; subsequently won, to wit:

- 1.. Stuart Dawson - wine;
- 2.. Kevin Grey - key-ring;
- 3.. Jim Reid - wine;
- 4.. Ron Gaudion - wine.

Ray Howlett made a special thank you for the supper provided by Lloy Bayliss, Di Cooper and Lyn Evers. Meeting closed at 8.47pm.

LUNCH AT THE MOO MOO CAFE

Twelve members met at the Moo Moo Café at Mooball for a Sunday lunch on the 14th October. Earlier plans to have a morning tea stop and a drive through the Gold Coast Hinterland and Tweed Valley had to be abandoned due to the very inclement weather but after arriving at the distinctive black and white cafe we sat down to a convivial lunch among motorcycle and vintage toy memorabilia. The food was good, as was the service and all members that attended had a good time. Thanks go to Jane and Garry Mikkelsen for organising the day.
