Emails from J Reid and T Nelson regarding the sad decision of two Life Members to retire from the Gold Coast Register.

Past Events:

Again, two great functions this month – our annual St Bernard's Hotel lunch, expertly organised by Arthur Kontalis; and a very successful lunch at Fox & Hounds, Wongawallen, brilliantly put together by Ray Howlett. The weather was kind, the food was great, and the company stimulating (what can you expect, I'm in lockdown). Thanks, boys, for great events!

General Business:

Di Cooper discussed issues raised in last week's Chairman's Zoom Call. These included changes to Life Membership, and changes to the JDCQ Committee. A change in venue for Christmas was also detailed – this event will now be held at Emerald Lakes Golf Club, and more details will follow in the months to come. Di also gave an update on Tony Curtis, who has moved to a single room, is working well with a physio and is improving significantly – regards from all the members for a swift recovery! A late email (received on the day of the meeting) was also tabled regarding a stolen red S-Type {SRL11} owned by Richard Lacey. If anyone has any details, please contact Richard or Debbie Duncan urgently.

Lucky Door Prizes:

Three bottles of wine (two White and 1 Red), kindly donated by members. Winners were Brian Hogan, Tom Ross and Terry Jenkins.

Supper: Unfortunately, due to Covid-19 restrictions, there was no supper allowed.

There being no further business to discuss, the Chairwoman thanked the Members for their attendance and closed the meeting at 8.15pm.
