ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING JAGUAR DRIVERS CLUB OF QUEENSLAND INC. GOLD COAST REGISTER HELD AT THE ASHMORE ROTARY COMMUNITY CENTRE, ASHMORE 28th NOVEMBER 2022

The meeting was opened at 7.56pm by Tom Ross, who kindly agreed to chair the AGM. Tom acknowledged the hard work of the past Committee and thanked them for their contribution over a difficult Covid-ridden year.

Apologies:	As per General Meeting.
Minutes of Previous AGM:	Passed without amendment by: S Duncan ; Seconded by: R Howlett .
Treasurer's Report:	As per General Meeting.

All positions being declared vacant, the following were voted in as the new Committee for 2023:

Chairman:	Di Cooper
Vice Chairman:	David Willmott
Secretary:	Debbie Duncan
Treasurer:	Brian Hogan
Editor:	Robin Kup-Ferroth
PR / Library:	Tom Ross
Committee:	Andrew Danks, Diana Hogan, Arthur Kontalis, Chris Miers, Irene Ross

The Chair was then handed back to Di Cooper, who thanked Tom, and also acknowledged the work of the previous Committee. Di also commented on the possibility of doing a mid-week overnight run during the coming year, and sought comment/commitment from the members. This will be discussed in due course. Ruth Willmott asked for a vote of thanks to Ray Howlett for his tireless work over many years, together with Gwen, on the Committee, and David Jones' contribution over this past year was also acknowledged.

A Committee Meeting will be arranged, a date to be confirmed at the Christmas Party, as soon as possible, to organise the new Calendar for 2023.

Di also made mention that she had been re-appointed as President of JDCQ, with the same Queensland Committee as last year, and that ACJC will be closing down, and therefore we should get more money back from Queensland from subs at some point in the future.

Acknowledgement was also made of Ron Gaudion's commitment and involvement in the Gold Coast Register, and disappointment that he was not able to be present at this year's AGM. He was sorely missed.

The AGM closed at 8.20pm.
