The 50th Anniversary in Toowoomba in May is progressing. List needs to be updated for those attending the three-course dinner at the Toowoomba Turf Club as only 30 have paid of 150 pledged. Films will be provided by Gary. Saturday car display at the Cobb & Co Museum organised by Terry Whitehouse. Air display will be nearby. Organisers need information on who is coming, where staying and car driven.

Library: Gary Mikkelsen reports:

He has compiled list of DVDs of YouTube programs dealing with Jaguar vehicles, history, etc. Very extensive list and can make copies of same on DVD or USB if requested.

Cars and Parts: (See Di in General Business)

Past Events:

David Willmott:

(1..) The Christmas Pary (at Emerald Lakes Golf Club) was one of the best, the food, the very extensive raffle table prepared by Chris. He then spoke about his personal winnings and then thanked all who contributed to the success of that day.

(2..) The 11th Anniversary mid-week run (first started by our late Terry Cooper) commenced with a run to Wyralong Dam for the traditional cutting of the cake, and then onto the Beaudesert RSL in air-conditioned comfort for lunch on a warm day. A successful day.

John Porter:

(3..) On Australia Day the E-Type group from Brisbane met early at Canungra at the Mets Cafe. The food was mostly good but separate tables was not. A good day with some good cars there.

Future Events:

Marilyn Porter:

(1..) Wednesday 5 February is breakfast at the Barrow Café in Mt Nathan. New owners, chosen a good spot meet there at 8.30 for 9.00am.

Brian Hogan:

(2..) Sunday 16 February is lunch at the Shearers Arms Tavern in Ormeau. Meet there for at 11.30am for 12.00 noon.

Diana Hogan:

(3..) Wednesday 5 March is breakfast at Greendays at Bundall. Meet at 9.30am for 10.00am.

John Porter:

(4..) Adjustments to the calendar will be needed as selected venues Mavis Kitchen and Mikes Kitchen are not available.

General Business:

John Porter spoke:

(1..) Referred to the menu changes at our venue (Lone Star Tavern), alternatives venues looked at but there is little interest in hosting car clubs. We are staying here for the year.

(2..) Changes to the Jaguar model lineup is all electric. Not favoured by many. Hopes that the new U.S. Administration may bring about changes.

(3..) Sought to re-start the "members talk". Brian Hogan will commence same at the next meeting.

Di Cooper spoke:

(4..) Referred to her wonderful journey to Eagle Hawk in deepest Victoria along the Newell Highway covering 4.5 thousand kilometres. Prior to leaving, her 7-year-old Jaguar had aircon problems. No parts were available in Australia and five other Jaguars were also waiting for the same parts from the UK. This is poor service for such a late model. Luckily Paul Wallis was able to source a second-hand part from WA and install two days before the commencement of the trip. Given the weather in December, the journey would have been terrible without the aircon. She also received very good service from her insurance company "Youi" re extending cover to 18-year-old driver.

John Porter spoke again:

(5..) Read an email from Robert Pearce of the Burnett Register regarding the compiling of a list of Mk.7,8,9s in Australia similar to a list already in NZ.

Closure.

Meeting closed at 7.40pm (20 members attended).
